

NEWTON SCHOOLS FOUNDATION PRESENTS

Newton Inspires

An Evening of Ideas and Community

PROMINENT NEWTONIANS SHARE THEIR PASSIONS

Wednesday
January 21
7–9:30 pm

At Newton South
High School

NEWTON
SCHOOLS FOUNDATION

50TH ANNIVERSARY

EDUCATE • INNOVATE • INSPIRE

The event costs $10
for Newton residents
and space is limited.

To reserve a spot, go to www.NewtonSchoolsFoundation.org.
Or call 617.559.6120 for more information.

Dr. Tenley Albright

Olympic gold skater, surgeon and director, MIT Collaborative Initiatives

Jodi Detjen

Management professor and author,
Suffolk University

Daniel Drezner

Professor of international politics,
Tufts University

Marjorie Druker

Author and chef

Dr. Giovanni G. Fazio

Senior physicist, Harvard-Smithsonian
Center for Astrophysics

Jeffrey Gallant

Associate director of admission,
Boston College

Dr. Julian Goldman

MGH anesthesiologist and Medical Device Interoperability
Program founder

Tamara King

Teacher and former ballerina

Michael Kozuch

Director, Global Communities
program, Newton South

Dr. Robert Langer

Professor, engineer and inventor, MIT

Greg Maslowe

Farm manager

Andy Molinsky

Organizational behavior professor and author, Brandeis University

Joe Rancatore

Ice cream futurist

Hope Haslam Straughan

Associate Dean of Social Work,
Leadership and Policy, Wheelock College

Lisa Vasiloff

Social entrepreneur

Heidi Vernon

Gardener, knitter and cook

Barry White

Former U.S. ambassador to Norway

Saul Wisnia

Baseball journalist, author and blogger

Herbie Ziskend

Former Obama and Biden White House
staffer and Huffington Post chief of staff, NNHS '03

Mitchell Zuckoff

NYT bestselling author and journalism
professor, Boston University

Thanks to the support of

